The GAZETTE, OF THE State of South-Carolina.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1779. [No. 2156.]

THE Subscribers return their hearty thanks to their friends for the encouragement given them in their

Vendue Business,

And beg leave to inform them and the public,

That they can only attend to the Sales of Negroes, Rum, Sugar and other valuable commodities, as on examination of their books they find, they have been losers by the sales of horses, lands, &c. not one of a dozen of the first, or one tract in 50 of the latter, having been sold by them after advertising; their owners too, being mostly strangers, have left town without paying the expences of the News papers and hand bills.——The old cloaths, furniture, and other lumber trades, they are obliged positively to decline, unless the House of Assembly will appoint the adviser of the two and a half per cent. tax to be their clerk, when they will readily continue them, and likewise present the public with the whole amount of their commissions thereon.

Colcock and Gibbons.

N. B. For the sales of Horses, Lands, &c. as above declined by us, we would be much obliged to our Friends if they would please to employ Mr. Nicholas Boden, as we are convinced he can do them much more justice in that way.

SALES of LANDS, &c.

By N. Boden, at the State-House.

A white Mare branded on the mounting Shoulder B, and R or B on the off Shoulder, is about 7 Years old.

A bay Gelding, about four Years old, with a Star and Snip, branded on the mounting Shoulder and buttock with the Likeness of a Fishing Hook, and is a natural pacer.

The above Strays appear to have been exceeding ill used and very low, and much galled.—The Owner or Owners must prove their Properties before JOHN DEAS HOWE.

Charlestown, Dec. 1.

SEven French Ships of the Line, and some Frigates, are arrived in Chesepeak Bay; supposed to be a Division of the Count d'Estaing's Fleet, or the Reinforcement which he expected from Europe.

The Ships of War which the Count left here, are, the Chimere, Commodore Durumain; — the Iphigenie, M. de Kersaint, now on a Cruize; — the Lively (taken from the English) M. de Couttendreau;— the Ariel (taken from the English) M. de Montluc;—the Bricol, M. Beauvais, capable of mounting 64 Guns, for Harbour Service;—the Adventure (a British Prize) M. Coronat, just returned from a Cruize; — and the Truite, M. Lefont; ——besides two Packet-Boats, the Diligence and Comet, both taken from the English.

Some American Prisoners, who lately made their Escape from New York, say, that the first Intelligence received there of the Count d'Estaing's being in these Seas, was by the Privateer Sloop Pollux, which upon taking a Spanish Ship from Havana, that had but two Days before parted with the Count off St. Augustine, immediately returned thither. That it occasioned a good deal of Bustle, and many long Faces amongst the Refugees: That all the Inhabitants within the General's reach, without Exception (about 4000 in all) were immediately compelled to to work, 2000 per Day, every other Day, not only upon the Fortifications of the City, but also upon Governor's and Stanton-Islands; that notwithstanding the flaming Zeal of many of them for the Royal Cause, they all complained much of the Hardships but were obliged to submit: That 12 sail of large Ships had been prepared, to be sunk, for obstructing the channel between Sandy-Hook and the Hook, and in some other parts, but on making an experiment with some of them, they were driven upon the Jersey more, and that all the large Ships of war at New-York were, the Ruſſel of 74 guns, the Europa (from Newfoundland) and Raiſonable of 64 each, the Renown of 50, and the Roebuck of 44 lying within Sandy Hook.

The whole Britiſh army at New York, before the evacuation of Rhode Iſland, was was ſaid to be 5000 on Ye Iſland, 9000 on Long-Iſland; and 1500 on Staaten Iſland; the force on Rhode-Iſland, ſuppoſed about 4500, unleſs any part had been withdrawn before the evacuation.

That the Fowey man of war was not deſtroyed by a bomb, as we were told by deſerters, but much injured.

A ſloop with 1100 buſhels of ſalt arrived here laſt week, and a brig with upwards of 3000 at Georgetown

About three weeks ago, a ſquadron of very large ſhips of war were ſeen near Hiſpaniola, ſuppoſed to be from the Havana, or a diviſion of Don Antonio de Ayze's ſquadron, expected from Ferrol. Another ſquadron, of large French men of war, have been ſince met near Miguana.

The Sphinx Britiſh man of war, of 20 guns, lately carried into Martinique, was taken in ſight of ſir Hyde Parker's fleet by Barbados (after being bravely defended an hour and half) by the Amphitrite French Frigate.

The Britiſh troops are ſaid to have evacuated Rhode-Iſland, after having plundered and ruined the country, and deſtroyed their works at and about Newport, on the 26th of Oct. The embarkation was made in 32 ſhips, 8 brigs, 5 ſcooners and 11 ſloops, and they are ſaid to have gone for New-York; but no account has yet been received of their arrival.

By exchanged Priſoners, and ſome Deſerters from Georgia, we learn, that ſince the Siege of Savannah, the Britiſh and Foreign Troops there have been ſo ſickly, that 50 to 16 were buried per Day. That ſome of the Troops had moved Southwardly, ſome ſuppoſed for Sunbury, others for Eaſt-Florida. That the Myrtle, a Prize Ship, employed to water the French Fleet, after having been driven to Sea, without Anchors or Cables, had been obliged to run aſhore on the White Oyſter Bank in Tybee, where Part of her Crew got away, but the reſt were made Priſoners by the Comet galley. That the Rutledge Galley of this State, in like Diſtreſs, and having loſt one of her Maſts, had likewiſe been obliged to put into Tybee, to ſave the Lives of the People, and they alſo were made Priſoners of War. That a Scooner from Ogeechie, with ſome of our ſick and Wounded, ſuppoſed to have foundered, had been driven aſhore upon the Coaſt of Florida, between the Muſquitos and St. Auguſtine, and thoſe People alſo made Priſoners. And that a New-York Privateer Brig called the Hawke, of 14 guns, which arrived at Tybee the 7th of Nov. was heaving down there laſt week, to proceed upon a Cruize.

While the famous Britiſh Governor Johnſtone is cruizing, with a roving commiſſion, to alarm the coaſt of France; the American naval commander, John Paul Jones, Eſq; is playing the ſame game on the coaſt of England, with one ſhip of 50 guns, 5 of 32, a ſnow, and a cutter.

The Britiſh court, on the 10th of Auguſt, ſent Lord Mountſtuart, on an extraordinary embaſſy to the court of Turin.

The Count de Sabran, a fine Frigate of Marſeilles, Capt. Gaſquy, attempting to go over the Bar laſt Sunday Seennight, by bad Steerage, unfortunately got upon the North Breaker, and is loſt.

This Town continues entirely free from the infection of the ſmall pox; and the intercourſe with it is as ſafe, as with any other part of the ſtate. So that the members of the Legiſlature may come to the meeting of the General Aſſembly, abſolutely neceſſary for the public welfare, without the leaſt hazard.

A great Number of Advertiſements omitted this week ſhall have place in our next.

TO be ſold on Wedneſday December the 22d, at my Room in Church Street, at 11 o'clock, In Tracts from about 600 to 6000 Acres each, as Perſons inclined to purchaſe may chuſe, 56612 Acres of Land, being a Moiety or half Part of Hamilton's Great Survey, No. 21 Situated between General Williamſon's and the Court Houſe at Ninety ſix; a Plat of the Premiſes may be ſeen in my Hands. JACOB VALK.
